

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 22, 1882.

TERMS:—The EVENING BULLETIN is published daily, and served free of postage at 6 cents per week; 25 cents per month; 75 cents per three months; $1.50 per six months, and $3 per year, payable in advance.

THE EVENING BULLETIN HAS A LARGER CIRCULATION IN THIS CITY, CHESTER AND ABERDEEN, OHIO, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN MAYSVILLE.

It is reported in Washington that John C. New contemplates an early retirement from the position of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

The Arbitration Committee of the Chicago Board of Trade has fixed the price of July oats at sixty cents. The last sales on July 31 were made at sixty-two to sixty-three cents.

GENERAL LONG, American Consul at Alexandria, was attacked Saturday, in the streets by about forty natives. He defended himself with a club until rescued by British soldiers.

RETURNS from all the counties in the State except four show that Henry's majority for Clerk of the Court of Appeals is about 40,000. The counties not heard from are Harlan, Fletcher, Rowan and Perry.

The Tariff Commission will hold sessions at Cleveland, O., Thursday, August 31; Detroit, Friday, September 1; Indianapolis, Saturday, September 2; Cincinnati, Monday and Tuesday, September 4 and 5; Louisville, Wednesday, September 6; Chicago, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 7, 8 and 9.

The Democrats of Nicholas county met on Monday to select delegates to the Congressional district convention, and from what we have heard of the meeting, it seems to have been of the Kilkenney car kind. Judge Hargis was there, but his presence was very far from bringing about the harmony expected. The fur flew wildly for a time and resulted in the holding of a branch convention. They first declared for Pritchard for first choice and Hurt second. The other instructed for Harbeson first and Hurt second. It was a regular picnic and equal to any alleged to have ever been held even in Mason.

SHUT UP IN A BANK VAULT.

How Two Burglars Treated Cashier Pratt and Miss Palmer, his Assistant.

A Kewanee, Ill., dispatch tells the following: On Monday afternoon two men called at the First National Bank, in this city, and asked permission to leave their satchels there a short time. About six o'clock, while Cashier Pratt and Miss Palmer, his assistant, were closing up, the men knocked on the door and asked for the satchels. Miss Palmer opened the door and was seized by the neck by one of the men, who then kicked her nearly insensible. The other man rushed by her toward the vault, near which Mr. Pratt was standing. He struck him on the head with a revolver, knocking him senseless. Pratt and Miss Palmer were then forced into the vault. The burglars secured about $20,000, of which $6,000 was in gold, and left the town. Miss Palmer and the cashier, after remaining imprisoned over an hour, succeeding in breaking the lock and releasing themselves. They are both badly injured. Parties are scouring the country in every direction, but without result as yet.

The bank robbers were seen this morning near Mineral, Ill. Parties were in hot pursuit with every prospect of arresting both men before night. Over three hundred men were scouting in every direction. Mr. Pratt and Miss Palmer are in a bad condition to-day. She is prostrated by the excitement. Business houses and shops are closed, the owners joining in the chase.

Mrs. Fitch, General Sherman's daughter, has lost another little child by death.

For the DAILY BULLETIN, TO—

Though I see you pass
With a pretty lass,
Every now and then,
To me this thing
It does not bring
A momentary pain.

When first I knew
You were untrue,
I sorrowed and lamented,
But now I pray
For strength each day,
And try to be contented.

I know that we
Can never be
The same to one another,
Or nevermore,
As in days of yore,
Can you ever be my lover.

But there'll always be
A place for thee,
Reserved within my heart,
Though you and me
By fates decree,
Must now forever part.

West End, August 5th, 1882. A.

Bob Ingersoll's Family.

Chicago Tribune.

Col. R. G. Ingersoll's cottage at Long Beach is spoken of as the "cage of the happy family." The family is a numerous one, always surrounding him when at home, and all as happy, lively and chirpy as birds. They together in front of the cottage every morning, and as his seven or eight young girls accompany Mr. Ingersoll to or from the train passing the hotel front, they are pleasantly spoken of as "Ingersoll's Sunday school procession." The family never fails to be at the depot when he arrives or departs. Said one of the hotel guests recently: "It's the happiest family I ever saw, except Beecher's."
